“ TO Lavern Family:
Frank & Lavern made me promise until they both were deceased. When Lavern was working at Franks and Frank sent him on an errand he refused to go until someone came by and informed him or Frank what his wife and children were doing even going to eat out! Lavern loved you all! Once they hadn't found out what you all was up to sent me over to Gladys's noble house after they had tried to cook a meal that wasn't fit to eat the dogs wouldn't eat it- she only had a pie for the chuch see sent it over for them to eat.
Lavern may not have been home but he always cared. Sincerely, Judy
