“ Alice was a wonderful person that my dad and I got to know through our advertising business. She was so kind to me at every opportunity, that I will always remember her with much affection. Larry Sammon from Meadville told me that Alice finally died. I would have attended her funeral had I known. Of the many landowners where we erected billboards, Alice was my very favorite person. She had such a generous nature and spirit. Her faith was quite apparent. She epitomized a Christian saint to me in the many times I would stop and visit with her. She absolutely loved her family and spoke of them often. I will miss Alice, but hope to see her again in heaven, where this fine lady is most assuredly spending eternity with her Lord and Savior. Even though my message is late, I am sending my sympathy and condolences to the Garvey family. Our family owes you much gratitude and appreciation for many years of allowing our displays on your land. Alice was a great lady!
