“ I'll never forget Beverly showing me how to make supper on a budget (tuna noodle casserole) when I was a teenager. And her driving me and her daughter Linda home after the company Christmas party because we had enjoyed a little too many "spirits" that day. What a wonderful, intelligent woman who will be missed. Rest in peace Beverly.

“ my heart is broken, mom was fortunate to have had a healthy 78 years, it was right after her birthday last year she received the leukemia diagnosis, she fought a good fight but it was just too much for her, i'm thankful for all the time I got to spend with her, I will always carry her close in my heart

“ I did Beverly's taxes. Only got to see her once a year. She looked so good the last time I saw her even though she told me of the cancer, I just knew she would make it to next year. It seems that isn't so. She was a very intelligent and nice lady. I'm sorry for loss. I know she will be missed.
