“ I grew up with Carolyn...me tagging behind and thinking how pretty she was. I loved her dearly and always will. We just had such wonderful funny times...all of the family gathered for dinners or fishfries...you name it. I remember when she and Jimmy married...two favorite cousins from opposite sides of the family...wow I was in hog heaven. Being there when they adopted Matthew and watching him grow up with my kids and they having good times on Mom and Dad's farm. I will love Carolyn until I am gone..Always with love and sorrow. Hope you are carried on angels wings so you can walk again, Carolyn. Love you, Dee
