“ Dear Myrna, Clyde, Jr, Donna, Clint, and Jerriann--

We have Many many memories of Clyde thru the years. He always had the boyish grin and chuckles as he pulled many pranks on me and others. Probably one of my favorite memories were when we detoured through Scenic, South Dakota in search of buffalo. We found one elderly gentleman buffalo in a pen whom seemed as though he could barely stand on his legs. We laughed and we laughed for years of that lonely ole buffalo.

We find some peace in the thoughts that he was greeted in heaven by his loved ones, and that Martin has his buddy Clyde back!

You were a fine gentleman, and always thought of as a friend even though our paths seldom crossed in later years. We are sorry for your families' loss and our own. We will cherish many memories of times spent together.

*Love,
Martin D. and Roma Prins
