“ Dal was a wonderful person and loved by so many. I always thought of him as a big teddy bear and have known him my whole life. He was my dad’s best friend...he was family. RIP Dal, you will be missed.

“ Like Rod Belzer said, Dallas was the kind of neighbor people like to have: always friendly, always helpful and never too busy to visit. I really enjoyed listening to him play music. Although he could read music, he played from the heart, not sheet music. He was a friend to my parents and I hope they are "catching up" at this moment. He lived the life he wanted: ranching, playing in the band, riding horses and motorcycles, driving the bus and getting to know the kids, not just transporting them. We can all agree, he lived life well. Dave Cook

“ Neighbors can become family or simply folks you want to avoid. Dal was family. For close to 60 years he has always been there. He was never too busy that he couldn't stop and pull you out when you got stuck (numerous times) or stop and visit. Breken, Bryden Braxten, Logan and Norah absolutely loved to cross the highway and go see Dal and his menagerie of animals. He was their great-grandpa he was always so patient and kind. He is missed already.

I first met Dallas in the 1960's. Over the years, we became friends. I was always glad to see and visit with him. The last time was this past summer. I never dreamed that would be our last visit. Dallas will be missed. I miss him already.

We were so sorry to hear of his passing. Dallas was one of the nicest people I have met. My whole family thought a lot of him, including my grandchildren who rode the bus when he was the driver. I first knew him when his mother was my 4th grade teacher at North Salem School and he was preschool age. He will definitely be missed.
