“ To the other half of "the old married couple who argue at the Redwood Lodge" I want to thank you Dan, for always being my friend and listening to myself and Merikja when we needed to talk. We really did have some wonderful times-I will always remember you with a smile in my heart--p.s.-Did you wear your cowboy hat to heaven?? I miss you Bud

RIP Danny Ray. So, So many Great memories we have shared. Your Laugh and Smile are forever in our Minds and Hearts. The doorbell rang and you and that Black Cowboy hat were looking down when that deep voice said "Hey Charisma". I knew before you ever looked up it was you. We visited a long time that night. Until we meet again.

I didn't get to know Dan much. We did talk at length some times of his Montana days....various things going on in the world. We had a lot of laughs. He was my neighbor and a good friend and I wish the family prayers and strength. He was a good man.
