“ So sorry to hear this. I don;t have that many memories, she was quite a bit younger than I. Our dads were brothers. I was married and living in Texas before she got out of high school. I just remember her being the cutest little girl. May she rest in peace.

“ Bradford and family, I'm so sorry for the loss. Darlene was a lady everyone loved. Growing up she was one helluva softball pitcher on the summer ball team. Just last Saturday we chatted and gave Brad a hard time at an auction sale. I will always cherish every time we met. We never know when God needs us more. May God comfort each of you and hold ya even closer during this time of sorrow. Rest In Peace 🙏
