“ Although David graduated with me from Brookfield High, I regret that I did not get to know him until later in life. David was such a kind and tenderhearted man, so generous and always willing to help out in many ways. He was instrumental in planning our class reunions, volunteering for whatever was needed. He was so proud of his family. He will be missed by many!

“ My condolences to David's family. We were classmates but didn't really get to know each other until after we graduated. I enjoyed working with him planning class reunions and found him to be a willing and serious man who always volunteered and often took on projects on his own. His recovery from his stroke several years ago was remarkable and deepen his faith in God. I have no doubt he is volunteering for projects in Heaven.

“ My heartfelt sympathy to Martha, Danielle & Jake, Dana & Tony, grandchildren, Jeff and John Ingram families. David was a great man with friends from everywhere. He enjoyed and loved woodworking and making precious wood gifts for his grandchildren Christmas. This year he was working on hand crafted tic tac toe games made from oak and walnut combined. David was an awesome wedding photographer over the years in his spare time. Another hobby of his was collecting old post cards of the Good Ole Days of Brookfield. He had hundreds of 'em. They are so neat!

We love and miss you
Rest In Peace
