“ Dear Family, My sympathy and prayer are with you. Deloma was a great friend while I struggled a Stanberry Uniforms...I loved her dearly. When I left there she said the nicest compliment I ever received."she would take a cut in pay if I would come back" Wasn't she amazing.

“ Mrs. B. Thank you for the many years of friendship, the candy every year at christmas because you knew that I couldn't make it. To Mr.B. I will pray for you Mrs. B. is in a better place with no pain. She was a Good Christian woman, so you know that she is in heaven. To the Family: Your Mother, Grandmother, and great Grandmother, was a very special person. She looked out after many of her neighborhood kids, you could never get anything passed her. But she was also very quick to listen. Everyone knew that you could always go to her for help. Thank you for sharing her with the rest of the world. and always remember that she is smiling down, watching over each one of you.

GOD BLESS

“ We called her Aunt Deloma. She was a great friend to our mother as they grew up. If I remember correctly, Deloma taught our mother how to spit and called her Margie. My own memories of "Aunt" Deloma are mostly of the joy her visits brought to our mother...and dancing. Deloma danced while our mother played the piano. I'd give a great deal to see that again...just one more time. Instead, I am sure our mother is playing the music to which our "Aunt Deloma" is dancing for Jesus.
