Dennis was more than a friend he was like a brother. He was there for me. And I was there for him. Joyce, Dennis, Connie and myself would go somewhere looking for antiques it was an adventure. Always had fun. Joke and laugh. We talked on the phone always pulling a prank and cutting up. Dennis was one of those unique people that always made you feel good. And, if you were his friend he was always there for you. I know I'm a better person because I knew him. I only hope and pray that one day I see my friend again. You will be missed. But never forgotten. If anyone gets a chance to here the song from Luke Bryan. Drink a Beer. Really listen to lyrics. It fits. I'm not going to say good bye. Just so long for now.

“ Every time my boys and I have the opportunity to all be together we always talk and remember the times with Denny, Earl, Ronnie and Darrell when our family hunted together in the Fall. Those memories will always be with us and I will miss the phone calls during the holidays and the road trips to see everyone. Denny was always an exceptional and caring man who made a difference in many peoples lives including myself and my Boys. May the fish always bite and your shots ring true Denny!

“ My heart and prayers go out to Joyce, Darrell and Ronnie for the loss of your son and brother 🙏❤️
Dennis was a great friend who was always there for me. We shared laughs hunting deer, fishing at Bennett Springs, hanging off the side of a barn painting, and working at MODOT. When I moved away we kept in touch through phone calls and occasional visits. I will miss our stories and laughs my friend. I hope your heaven is full of wet fishing lines and quiet fall timbers. 🤔🥰

“ Dennis was such a great person. I have memories way back when he worked with my dad, Harvey Berry. He was a great friend of his. Always at the house, them going fishing, or just hanging out talking. Whenever I seen Dennis, he always gave me a hug, and always asked how my mom and I were doing. Loved him to the moon. Rest in peace onery butt. You will be greatly missed💖🙏
