“ I remember her telling stories of her Dad I believe sheering sheep and a Indian that helped him she had a picking her room where I cared for her the Indian had done. She was a beautiful soul. My daughter got a catahoula puppy we took it in to show her she held it examined its teeth paws and said after looking at the pups paws she’s going to be a big dog. She was right that pup got huge and slept with our daughter every night. My prayers are with your family hugs Sherry.
