“ Well better late than never. I just saw where my friend Ermil passed away. He was just a kind person and I always had to give him a Hug. Hadn't seen him for a while. Heaven gained an Angel. Miss you Ermil. Love to the family

“ I am sad to hear of Ermil's passing. Although I had not seen him for many years I have fond memories of him being a soft spoken, kind man. I still remember the evening he took a foul tip ball to the nose during softball practice. Many prayers for peace and comfort being sent to you and yours.

“ I choose to remember Dad as the one who taught me how to put up drywall, and ride a bike. The funny dad who would wrestle and be the softball coach for our little league team. I will cherish the times he took me on motorcycle rides, took me fishing, supported me in scouts and school functions. He was the Dad who worked so hard and sacrificed the “nice things” in life, so we could have more. I choose to remember him bringing me to work with him while we went to look at Radio tower relays. I might help him hold something or get a tool. Other times I'd look for fossil, but he put up with me. In the basement Dad had “Bailey Electronics”. He would let me play with soldering iron because he trusted me not to mess with his radios he worked on and I had fun! He would work on the communities radios for trucks and homes, most times for next to nothing. He was my Superman. I love you. I have hope that we will see you again.

“ Sharing my memory of U Ermil as the 'Male figure' in me & my sister's life when our parents divorced. He would go to our Girl Scout Father Daughter banquets with us & it seemed perfectly normal. He was such a big part of our lives during that time. He even signed the loan for my first car. He was a gentle, kind man....a Good man! He is truly missed.

“ God took my Brother Ermil back home so he will not have to suffer anymore from his illness, but he did not take our memories of him . As my "sister" stated he never complained about being ill, or saying "Why me" or blaming God. But, instead he was like a good Captain of a ship, he rode out the storm and stayed onboard until the end.

The fun memories of him and my sister growing up on the family farm with our parents and with neighbor friends will live on with us forever..they are endless until we meet again in Heaven with Ermil. I Will miss him until then...Brother Wayne

I thank God for my good kind Christian brother. He never complained of his illness and saw it to the end. He has a good family and a devoted wife. I have many wonderful child hood memories. He called me sister when we were younger. I told him if he called me sister again, I wasn't going to answer him - he never did.
Sadly missed by "sister" Luella

Ermil was a classmate of mine starting third grade in Purdin through our high school graduation in Browning. He was one of the quieter boys and always had a smile for everyone. RIP Ermil, Heaven gained a great guy. Elaine Badger
