“ Good Ole George, how we are going to miss him omgoodness. We have known him for over twenty years and so many many memories. Him, Frank and my husband had some of the best times ever. George could make you laugh so much with the things he would do especially to just get his brother going we still laugh about them today. And the peanut days at orschlens will go down in history. But seriously, he would do anything for anyone and would always be the sweetest kindest person when he knew you where having a moment. That was good Ole George, one of a kind. RIP buddy, taken to soon, we will miss ya.
