“ The simple truth is ain't Ellen was my biggest fan..she encouraged me & made me know without a doubt she loved me. Though it has been years since I've been able to see her, not a week went by I didn't feel her presence..she will never be forgotten & her pain is no more .All that's left is the pain for those who loved her. It is small comfort that that pain will ease over time. My heart is with her immediate family who she cherished. I am sorry I cannot be there in person, but I am there in spirit..as is hers. Rest in peace auntie..I love you

“ Not only my sister, but a true inspiration throughout my life. She taught me the true meaning of love and grace. Ellen's family, friends and acquaintances were of the utmost importance in her life next to her relationship with her Savior. To the moon and back sister... I love you.

“ Ellen was a wonderful person, never heard her say a bad word about anyone, I considered her a friend. She will be missed. I will be unable to attend her service and I hate that but can't be helped, she was a beautiful person inside and out.

“ May Our Lord Jesus Christ grant His greatest consolation as you mourn, finding comfort in the knowledge that those who fall asleep in Christ suffer pain no more, and have taken their place amongst the Heavenly Host, singing "Holy, Holy, Holy"; and that those who diligently serve The Lord will one day see their loved ones again, as they, too, join the rejoicing throng. Amen.
