Jeannine Ann, daughter of Arlo LaVerle and Helen Louise Falconer Truitt was born on October 9, 1948 at Kansas City. She was united in marriage to Rudy Head on December 31, 1973 at Linneus.

Jeannine was passionate about many things. She enjoyed her rural lifestyle, especially painting, cooking and sewing. She was full of life and shared it with the people around her. She was a caregiver. A breast cancer survivor, she always tried to help those going through the difficult battle of cancer.

Her greatest love was traveling the world with her beloved husband, especially going to New Orleans. Her children and grandchildren were the light of her life.

She is survived by her husband, Rudy Head, of the home; daughter, Lindsay Howerton and husband Tim, Overland Park, KS.; son, Carl Allen Head, Kirksville; sister, Lana Hoffmeyer and husband Al, Carrolton; grandchildren, Maggie and Lyla Howerton, Overland Park, KS.

Jeannine was preceded in death by her parents and infant sister, Linda Jean Truitt.
