“ I love u uncle jeff.. We were always close and you understood me. You taught many things but my most valued lessons was how to smile even when there seemed like nothing to smile for... You were my role model and my pal and when I ran away from school you would walk me back and make me feel better about everything .you always loved to laugh and were full of love you spread to all you met... You rocked out and pigged out and the food was phenomenal i will always cherish you and the memories of you ...i love you uncle jeff keep an eye out for me guide me still and save me some of your good grub up there ...
