“ I didn't get to know John as much as I would have liked to but what I did feel for him was his honesty and positivity and always believing that the would and the people in it could do better if they just tried. Will miss his free spiritedness. Rest in peace John. Wayne & Sherri Ratliff

“ I'll miss seeing John in Time Warp where I got to know him and Lisa over the years through their antiques business. Always friendly when I came into the store, I was most struck by John's willingness to please and work with the customer, and over the years he gave me many generous discounts on items to reward my customer loyalty. It's a shame that Brookfield has lost a businessman who was so "young" comparatively and young at heart and who should have had many more good years of auction hunting and finding unique primitive and mid-century pieces to offer for sale. I offer my sincere condolences to Lisa and her family, and I hope they (and Time Warp) will continue to make Brookfield their home.

“ John very seldom missed coming into the Senate Bill 40 thrift shop each day, sometimes twice a day. He was a dear friend to all and we considered him as part of our family. He was always upbeat and never complained. When he bought anything he would always give us more than we asked for. We miss him, but he is with the Lord and not suffering anymore. “ John was such a nice, caring, man; I don't even know what adjectives would be the best to use. He was exceptional. His visits to the SB40 brightened up the shop and breezeway for all of us.

“ For decades we lost contact with each other. Glad we reconnected through social media and we're able to share memories of our youth. You were a kind hearted young man back then and an even kinder man before you were called to Gods arms.

Thanks for sharing with me how I touched your heart at an early age.

I pray your family finds comfort in knowing your in Gods hands.

Rest In Peace amigo

“ I have so many memories I could share about my brother John. But I want more to tell you what an honor it was to be his sister to watch him grow into the man you became. I love the fact that you and I spoke all the time on the phone and make sure we told each other how much we loved each other. One of the memories I do remember the most is how I would go places and people would tell me did you know you look like this guy John I know, and I would simply tell them he looks like me I'm his older sister. Brother I am at a loss without you my second half. I was truly blessed to have you in my life to share the good Times and the bad Times. I love you today, Tomorrow and forever your sister Michele.

“ I have many memories of Jonathan. He was a benevolent and intelligent man. His mind was a fountain of information to share. Jonathan always went the extra mile for people who needed his assistance.
Jonathan was never about himself.

While reading Jonathan's obituary I heard Jonathan call out to me. He gave me a message: His mind speaking His mind speaking to me says; thank you for always being there for my sister. You are a good friend/true to her. Thank you for being there for me that night. Thank you for our last conversation you and I had. I value your friendship. You are a good person to me says; thank you for always being there for my sister, Michele Greenwood. You are a good friend/true to her. Thank you for being there for me that night. Thank you for our last conversation you and I had. I value your friendship. You are a good person.
I saw Jonathan smiling. He was wearing white as the Lord's light surrounded him. Jonathan is at peace.

Heavenly Father, I come to you with a grateful heart even as I mourn the loss of our loved one. It may be a loss for us, but it is gain for your kingdom. Lord, I thank you for the times that you gave us to spend with Jonathan. I bless you for honoring us with such an influential person that loved us with the love of Christ and was light in the world. May your name be praised forever even as our loved one stands in your presence today. In Jesus' name, we believe and pray. Amen.

“ My fondest memories of my step father are all surrounding music. John loved to make music, listen to music, and discuss music. With his expansive knowledge vastly exceeding my own, John showed me blues, jazz and rock n roll bands I'd never heard of, among other more obscure genres and even more unheard-of bands. John was a talented drummer and he could put together one heck of a good jam session. He had a way of bringing folks together that seemingly had very little in common and making them all feel at home together. John was a great father and together with my mother, Lisa, he worked incredibly hard to ensure his children never went without anything that they needed, whether that be a material item or his time, guidance, and attention. I know he will be forever missed by them. I know my mother is grieving deeply, after spending 24 years together, throughout the hard times and the good times, especially the hard times as the end of John's life grew nearer. My mother never left his side, her devotion to him unwavering. That is the kind of love that John inspired. When my own father passed away, John welcomed me into his home. He spent a lot of time talking with me and helping me through that very tumultuous period of my young life. He was an insightful and compassionate person and I think that shows in the legacy he leaves behind. His family and friends and people he inspired will always remember John and keep him near to their hearts. Rest in peace.
