“ My heart goes out to all of you. It is strange that the past several days Rita has been on my mind. Some of my fondest memories as a child are coming to Brookfield and visiting with all the family. No matter what, Rita always had a smile and a hug that she was more than willing to give to you. As the years have gone by the visits and calls may have been infrequent but the thoughts and memories are always there. May we all find comfort in the memories she made with us and the love she shared. Although I cannot be there in person please know that my thoughts and heart are with you all.

Love and Sympathy,

Amy

“ Dearest Jack,
You and Rita were our partners in business, and so much more. My fondest memories are traveling to Chicago with Rita for the Enesco gift show!! We looked forward to our trip each year!!! She was so proud to introduce me to her Precious Moments and the Cherrished Teddies, along with all of her other favorite collectables and gifts. The times we spent together were the "REAL" Precious Moments. May you find peace in God and all of your wonderful memories with a very Precious and Cherrished woman!!!
See you on Thursday,
Gayla

“ Rita was such a wonderful person. I still remember playing in the back of the pharmacy as a small child. Rita always made sure that I had plenty of toys to play with, so I immediately admired her from an early age. One of my favorite places to go trick-or-treating was Jack and Rita's house. They always gave the best candy and had plenty of warm smiles and hugs to go with it. As I grew older, I learned that what was special about Rita was not sweet toys or sweet treats, but that she was such a sweet person. She always brightened the room with her presence and added extra joy to anyone's day. She was such a special lady to many people and the memories of her will live forever. I know that myself and the rest of my family are truly thankful that we were some of the lucky people that had the blessing of having Rita as a part of our lives. I hope that family and friends of Rita will find peace and comfort in God, and will continue to hold onto all the fond memories of Rita forever.

Love,
