“ Lynna was my cousin – she always called me Katherine Marie or Witchy!

Growing up with Lynna was never boring!!

She had her firstborn Donna Mae in the back seat of her mother's car. What an event that was....chaos and panic! We all learned from that experience....all the other kids. We were prepared (:

She would take us kids trick or treating – she would pick the scariest houses. To her surprise, she was the chicken. She peed her pants. LOL!! One of my favorite memories (:

When they lived out in Olathe, her brother Rickey had a Billy Goat. Billy goat was standing out by the back door and I wanted to go outside. She told me to pick up a board and hit it between the horns. That is not what you should do – I was screaming bloody murder for someone to save me from Billy. I had a good hold of him by the horns but he was a strong one! So, NEVER hit a Billy goat between the horns. Luckily, Rickey came along and saved me LOL!

She would play records none stop...some you wanted to smash them because...How many times are we going to listen to D-I-V-O-R-C-E by Tammy Wynette. Not to mention Conway Twitty...hello darlin'. The list is actually really long....I have a good collection of country records. Come to think about it...I do not have a Tammy Wynette record. Hmmm. (:

When I hear those songs today, it brings me back! Growing up in the 1970's was a blast!

Love you Lynna!
