“ We are so sorry for your loss. Mama (Alta B. Johnson) remembers the first time she ever saw her. Mama was young at the time and saw Uncle Noy, as they called Mildred's dad (Noah), and little (maybe 2, years old) Mildred and the boys walking up the gravel road. Mama said Mildred was the prettiest little blonde headed girl she ever saw. I am so glad they were able to stay in touch all these years. I hope we get to see you again sometime, Cindy, as well as your brothers/family.

“ I am so sorry for your loss.
My father Murphy Johnson always spoke so fondly of Mildred. They spoke often on the phone.
I remember a few years ago Mildred and her daughter came to the Johnson family reunion. And my Dad was so happy to see her. The family reunion was always something he looked forward to every year. ❤️
Keeping her family in my prayers.
