“ Missed seeing you when Jay and I visited back in August 2020. We spent every night at Ricky and Julie Pickens house reminiscing about the old days. Talking about how you boys entertained us with your back flips and jumps back in the day. Listening to the church bells ring in the distant and our bike rides to the tastee freeze. I didn't realize you had so many kids and grandbabies. Would love to meet them all someday. They can hit me up on Facebook (Kay Apfelbeck). I'm balling my eyes out at work...so I better end it by say.

Tell everyone Hello from from us.

RIP Love

“ Paul is my father in law. He was an amazing man. We spent many days and some nights at Truman dam. We caught so many fish. I never really liked fiahing growing up but that man made fishing fun. Leah and I loved it when we took the boat out. Although sometimes we broke down or didnt get far from land we still had fun. Our first time ever snagging was freezing cold but dad said it would be fun. He wasnt wrong it was a blast. Leah and I loved it. From then on every time the boat left land we was on it. Leah loved helping papa reel in his fish. Them 2 were like 2 peas in a pod. Dad loved fishing and Leah loved spending time with him. If dad was messing with the fishing poles Leah was quick to grab hers and say Im ready papa.
