“ Ray was such a kind man. He was my dad's roommate at McLarney Manor. They became friends, although they didn't talk much, they cared about each other. They became concerned if one or the other wasn't feeling well. When we would visit my dad, my boys and Ray would share stories about hunting and fishing. When they would bring in pictures and items gotten while hunting they would share with him as well. He will be greatly missed.
