“ She was an absolutely amazing woman the best grandmother her grandkids could ever ask for and an amazing person all around I so admire her

“ If I was asked to make a list of people I most admired, Reba would be on that list. She was one of the most hard working people I will ever know. I don't think she knew what "slow down" meant. Even when you knew she wasn't feeling up to doing anything at all, there she was, going to work. She had a terrific sense of humor. One of Bill's favorite stories is telling how he lit her newspaper on fire while she was reading it. There are few people I will miss more. God Bless, Reba.

“ Reba Kay, I can't believe you have left us. We had so many good times growing up in high school and working together at your mom's cafe on Helm Street. I remember the day you got married as if it was yesterday, what a pretty bride you were. Your mom and dad was so good to me even though you and I got in big trouble several times with your dad. hahaha I'll always treasure all the time we spent together. May you rest in peace my friend.
