Tribute Wall

“ I have known Richard since kindergarten. The first time he spent a night away from home, was at my house in the city of Brookfield. He got scared during the night and then slept with my parents. What little I know about farm animals came from going to Richard’s home and hanging out on the farm. We remained pretty close friends all through high school until I moved away to college. we also played football together until we had a hayride to John Pat’s farm. I also got to know his grandfather who lived with them for a while. The last 10 years when I would come home to Brookfield. I would usually see Richard at John Pat’s farm. we always remained friends and I will miss him. Walter
