“ We can say the words of how much we are going to miss you, but I know with the loss of our brother James, that a hole is there that can never be repaired. We do have our memories of how much fun and love we had as kids growing up, and I am so thankful for that. You were a good son, brother, husband and father, and you loved that role of caring for your family. Carla and kids, our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time, and may we all heal, and remember Ed with all the memories that we have had that was good. I know he is in a great place that God has given us. Love all of you.

“ I first met Ed at his brother Bill's while visiting my daughter Margaret. I'm thinking of Bill and Larry and hoping that they remember him as I do from last year and what a nice person he was. I was truly sad to hear of his passing.

“ I will never forget the day I met Ed. I had the gift of having him here at my home for several months. I wish it could have been under different circumstances but still I cherished every moment. I would check on him about everyday and we would talk for several hours. Since then we have had several memorial fishing trips. Ed was a true gentlemen and will be missed by everyone that has ever crossed his path. I miss him already. God bless you Ed!
