“ A great loss...
Robert Frock, a member of our extended family passed away. He was more than family he was also a friend and was someone that we personally liked and admired for many reasons. He was a kind, caring person with strong character and beliefs. Besides being an accomplished businessman, he was a committed husband and father. He had an absolute certainty of right and wrong that you had to respect, a drive that could not be ignored and a sense of humor that was legendary to those who knew him. The family and friends he left behind speaks volumes about the kind of man he was. His wife of many years is arguably one of the nicest people you could know. No one could ever question that she truly loved and respected him. He also has children of whom he was very proud. They are reflective of their parents' intelligence, caring and character. His friends cherished their friendship with him and have not even begun to understand the hole his passing leaves in their lives. We know his wife and children are reeling from their loss and we wish that we could bring them even half as much comfort as the joy his friendship brought me and my family. With age we have realized that you're not measured by the company you keep; but by the company that keeps you. With this in mind, We are more honored than ever to have known him. We will miss you.

“ Bob was one of a kind to be sure. Bob and I send our love to the family - if it hadn't been for the ridiculous snow storm we received which closed all the airports we would have tried to make it back for the funeral.

“ I remember my uncle Bob as a great Uncle and had such a great personality and sense of humor. He was my favorite Uncle. We shared the same birthday and he would call me on our birthday and send me birthday cards every year. He will be soooooo very missed by everyone who has known him. There is a hole that is left now that he has passed. But he is with Jesus and with the rest of our loved ones who has passed. At least we can take comfort in that. He had a horrible disease that took him at such a young age. He should have lived a longer life with my favorite Aunt and my favorite cousins. He did not deserve to suffer with this disease. But he was in a happy state of mind all of the time even towards the end. He was a great father, Uncle and everything he was to everyone here on Earth. I am just sorry for what had happened so many years ago that separated us when i was a teenager. I will regret that for the rest of my life that i could not be involved more in my Uncles life.
