“ My dad taught me at a very young age that you are to eat all like items on your dinner plate before moving on to the next. Breakfast was my dad's favorite meal of the day.

Dad loved country music- I remember going to bars with him to listen to music at a very young age. Sneaky snake was his favorite song.

We loved to go fishing. I remember when I was six and dad not so sneaky changing fishing poles with me so I would think I caught the "big one".

So many memories of the good and the not so great. I've often wondered what life would have been like if he and mom would have stayed together.

Dad, I thought of you on your birthday this year and wondered where you were and how you were doing. I wish I would have known so I could have visited with you one last time.

Rest in peace Dad.. xoxo
