“ Aunt Rosa Lee is now with her brothers in heaven trying to keep them straight as she did while on earth. I'm sure being the oldest of the Hull clan, she had a tough job. I remember her when I was a young child visiting Grandmother and Grandfather Hull in Chillicothe. She always was such a kind and gentle person. Take care Aunt Rosa Lee, and please tell my dad Earle, hello for me. I miss him very much and you will be missed also. Love, Kathy
