“ It is always hard to lose your Mom no matter what your age is. I knew your Mom from meals on wheels, church and the Oats bus. She was always so kind to us. Sorry for your loss.

“ We got to know Ruth through our former pastor, her son, Don Almond, whom she was so proud of him. She was perky and so loveable. We always enjoyed her when she came to visit out our Trinity United Methodist church. Sending comfort to her family, she will certainly be missed.
