“ Sam and Rosa lee were always dear friends of Dorothy and Ronnie Morin. We have fond memories as kids growing up in Brookfield with Doug and both families.

Sam was the quite one and always very kind and reserved. He was a good man and devoted to this family. Prayers to the entire family, we are very sorry for your loss.

“ He always showed me so much love. It never mattered that we weren’t blood related. He was an amazing Grandpa to me who I always loved visiting with. I’ll never forget and cherish all the Christmas mornings waking up at his and Grandmas house.
