“ I always appreciated the good care Darlene gave to my children. Darlene babysat my children from around 1982-1986 while we were in Brookfield. After moving, we kept in touch by Christmas cards and an occasional visit at the Kirksville Walmart. My sympathy to the family and my respect for the life of Darlene and for her love and care she gave my children.

“ So sorry to hear about Darlene, she was a fine lady and was such a sweet baby sitter for my youngest son. She always laughed and had story to tell me what Shane had done for the day. He was just a toddler then, he is 23 now. He enjoyed going to Darlene's any time. She was very sweet and will be very missed by all.

“ Bill & Shelly, Some of my most fond childhood memories were made while visiting in your home. I always looked forward to getting next to Darlene for hugs. She had an endless supply. She made the long ride from Iowa worthwhile.
