“ So sorry to hear of Terry's passing, although I know she is in a better place. She put up such a good fight for a long time and I know she must have been tired. The good Lord saw this and said Welcome Home Terry. Roy I know you are feeling lost right now, but you were so good to her and she loved you so much. God bless you.

“ I always looked forward to seeing Terry's beautiful smile when we were having dialysis. She loved the Lord and she loved her family. She often talked about the things she used to be able to cook for family gatherings. She was a special friend. My prayers are with the family she left behind.
