“ Dear Dad,

I wish we could have stayed close and not let life get in the way of a Father and son relationship. I know you meant well and every time I look in the mirror I see you. I had to stop the in and out of my life relationship because of my kids. I just didn't have the heart to explain grandpa to them when you onl came around every few years. It was the hardest thing I had to do. I love my kids even that much more because I don't ever want them to feel as I did all my life. That I wasn't ever good enough. I love you and have always been proud to have you as a Father. I'm proud of the Jenkins name and wish I could take my adoption back. I am a Jenkins and adoption can't change blood. I have been loved and cared for by another man and he means alot to me but he can't be you. I needed you and now your gone. I know though that one day we will meet again and have the relationship we failed to have on earth. I look forward to that day and until then I pray you watch over me and my family with out Lords love. Rest in peace dad you deserve it!

*Love your son,
Marc*
