Wayne Lewis was born November 2, 1931 in Bucklin, MO, the son of George A. and Ethel F. Bailey Davolt. He attended school in Bucklin before moving to Brookfield where he graduated high school in 1949. He was a veteran of the Korean War having served in the Air Force. He married Aletha Burns. They had two children, Brenda and Steve.

In his earlier years, Wayne raced motorcycles, stock cars and go-carts. He enjoyed camping, fishing and time spent in the mountains of Montana. In the early 1960's, he went to work for the CB&Q railroad. After many years of service, he retired as a conductor from the Burlington Northern railroad. Following his retirement, he became a winter Texan. In the last several years, he spent most of his time there, returning to Brookfield to visit family and friends. While in Texas, he enjoyed golf, shuffleboard, and bowling. In doing this, he made many good and lasting friendships. He greatly enjoyed attending many of the local high school's sporting events.

Wayne was a member of Brookfield Lodge #86, AF & AM, and Florence Chapter # 124, Order of The Eastern Star.

He is survived by his children, Brenda of Browning and Steve and wife, Jo of Harlan, Iowa, seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Also surviving are his brother and sisters, Delores (Clifford) Summers, J.C. (Carolyn) Davolt, Joan (Ronnie) Fugate, Joylee Ayers, Sharon Gladbach, a brother-in-law, Frankie Hicks, as well as numerous nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

Wayne was preceded in death by his parents, two grandsons, and a sister, Darla Hicks.
