“ My Mother, Brother and I met Grandpa for the first time in 2001 or 2002. My Mother is his daughter, Katherine Eileen Kremiller by his ex-wife Edna. They parted ways when my Mother was 2 yrs. old. My own Father passed in 2000 which I guess caused a longing for me to find my Mother's Father that she didn't have the opportunity to know growing up. I found him. I am so thankful to have had a chance to meet him. He had a jovial air about him and I liked him almost instantly. I wish we had more time. I get the impression he had many people who loved him dearly. Am saddened that the facility he was living in did not contact us upon his passing. We just found out a couple of days ago. Would have loved to be able to pay our respects to this wonderful man, while at the same time, meeting family we never knew we had. If any of my family would like to, you can contact me via e-mail. My condolences. Goodbye Grandpa...we love you.

*Always Your Grand Daughter,
Ayrika Edman*
